- (b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Corporation is committed to good corporate governance practices and in the implementation of the principles of fairness, transparency, accountability and responsibility. These practices, embodied in the Manual on Corporate Governance of the Corporation (the "Manual") provide the framework within which the Board of Directors and management pursue the strategic objectives of the Corporation and ensure its long-term viability for the benefit of shareholders. Pursuant to Section 2.2(b)(iv), the Corporate Governance Committee has been formed, primarily tasked to assist the Board in the performance of its oversight responsibilities in the development and implementation of the corporate governance principles, policies, structures and systems of the Corporation, and likewise tasked to review and assess the adequacy and effectiveness of said principles, policies, structures and systems. The Corporation's corporate governance practices continue to evolve to keep pace with the requirements of law, regulations and best practice recommendations. Key committees of the Board of Directors are organized with specific charters to ensure they provide strong oversight of strategic activities of the Corporation, resulting in sound business decisions that benefit shareholders. The overarching fiduciary responsibility of the Board of Directors to the shareholders and stakeholders is the unchanging and fundamental premise of the Corporation's commitment to corporate governance. Protecting shareholder interests and ensuring the integrity of the Corporation's financial information are central to every aspect of the Corporation's governance.

The Manual contains provisions on the treatment of all shareholders, respect for rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties and board responsibilities.

Section 5 of the Manual relates to Shareholder' Benefits and Section 5.1 refers to Investors Rights and Protection. Section 5.1(a) states the Corporation's commitment to respect the rights of investors and minority shareholders. The said section describes rights relating to voting rights, pre-emptive rights, power of inspection, the right to information, the right to dividends, appraisal right and promotion of shareholder rights.

Section 4 describes the reportorial system of the Corporation's corporate governance policies which includes disclosures to the Philippine Stock Exchange and the Commission.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Board shall periodically review and approve the Mission, Vision and Core Values of the Corporation as the need arises as recommended by Management.

- 2) Explain how the board of directors plans for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The Board of Directors has oversight responsibilities in the selection and appointment of the Chief Executive Officer who possesses the ability, integrity and expertise necessary for the position. The duties and responsibilities of the Chief Executive Officer are defined by the Board through the Nomination and Hearing Committee.

The Board likewise evaluates the proposed senior management appointments of the Corporation and selects qualified and competent management officers, which functions are exercised through the Executive Compensation Committee.

The Corporation has a Management Development Program which identifies, evaluates and assesses individuals who, in the future, can potentially succeed in top key management positions.

Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

The Board of Directors is tasked to implement a process of selection to ensure a mix of competent directors and officers who can add value and contribute independent judgment to the formulation of sound corporate policies. Directors are required to have a college degree or sufficient experience in managing the business

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

The Manual requires that the non-executive directors, including the independent directors, shall possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

Under Clause 2.2(a)(vi) of the Manual, an independent director is a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, has no business or relationship with the Corporation, which could or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment in carrying out his responsibility as a director.

The Corporation shall have at least two (2) Independent Directors or such number of Independent Directors that constitutes twenty percent (20%) of the members of the Board, whichever is lesser, but in no case less than two (2).

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

Yes, the Corporation complies with the SEC Memorandum Circular No. 9, Series of 2011, which provides that an independent director may only serve for five (5) consecutive years, after which he will be ineligible for election until after two (2) years from his last election, after which he may again serve for another (5) years. After the second five (5) year term, he will be perpetually disqualified to be elected as an independent director of the Corporation.

3) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

Describe the Audit Committee's responsibility relative to the external auditor.

The Audit Committee performs oversight functions with respect to the Internal and External Auditors of the Corporation, ensuring the independence of one from the other, freedom from interference from outside parties, and their unrestricted access to such records, properties and personnel of the Corporation necessary to enable them to perform their respective audit functions; and review the reports submitted by them. The Audit Committee evaluates and determines any non-audit work performed by External Auditors, including the fees therefor, and ensure that such work will not conflict with External Auditors' duties as such or threaten its independence. An External Auditor shall enable an environment of good corporate governance as reflected in the financial records and reports of the Corporation, undertake an independent audit of the Corporation and provide objective assurance on the manner by which the financial statements shall be prepared and presented to the shareholders. The External Auditor, which shall be duly accredited by the SEC, shall be selected and appointed by the shareholders upon recommendation of the Board, after consultations with the Audit Committee.

F. RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (as amended on 15 May 2016)

1) Disclose the following:

(a) Overall risk management philosophy of the company;

Objectives and Policies

The Group has significant exposure to the following financial risks primarily from its use of financial instruments, namely, Interest Rate Risk, Foreign Currency Risk, Commodity Price Risk, Liquidity Risk, and Credit Risk.

The Group's principal non-trade related financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, option deposit, AFS financial assets, financial assets at FVPL, short-term and long-term loans, and derivative instruments. These financial instruments, except financial assets at FVPL and derivative instruments, are used mainly for working capital management purposes. The Group's trade-related financial assets and financial liabilities such as trade and other receivables, noncurrent receivables and deposits, accounts payable and accrued expenses, finance lease liabilities and other noncurrent liabilities arise directly from and are used to facilitate its daily operations. The Group's outstanding derivative instruments such as commodity and currency options, forwards and swaps are intended mainly for risk management purposes. The Group uses derivatives to manage its exposures to foreign currency, interest rate and commodity price risks arising from the Group's operating and financing activities.

The Group's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Group, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to limits.

(b) A statement that the directors have reviewed the effectiveness of the risk management system and commenting on the adequacy thereof;

As stated in the results of the Self-Assessment Forms accomplished by the members of the Audit Committee which was reported to the Board on May 12, 2016, the Board found adequate the effectiveness and sufficiency of the internal control system, specifically, reviewed and discussed the findings and assessment of the Corporation's internal controls, risk management systems, control and governance process, and financial reporting systems.

(c) Period covered by the review;

The period covered is from January 01, 2015 to December 31, 2015.

(d) How often the risk management system is reviewed and the directors' criteria for assessing its effectiveness; and

Risk management system is reviewed annually. The directors' criteria for assessing its effectiveness of the risk management system are whether such risk management policies reflect changes in market conditions and the Group's activities. The Group, through its training and management standards and procedures, aims to develop a disciplined and constructive control environment in which all employees understand their roles and obligations.

2) Risk Policy

(a) Company

Give a general description of the company's risk management policy, setting out and assessing the risk/s covered by the system (ranked according to priority), along with the objective behind the policy for each kind of risk:

The Corporation has the same risk management policy with the Group.

Risk Exposure	Risk Management Policy	Objective
Interest Rate Risk	See below.
Foreign Currency Risk	See below.
Commodity Price Risk	See below.

(b) Group

Give a general description of the Group's risk management policy, setting out and assessing the risk/s covered by the system (ranked according to priority), along with the objective behind the policy for each kind of risk:

Risk Exposure	Risk Management Policy	Objective
Interest Rate Risk	The Group manages its interest cost by using an optimal combination of fixed and variable rate debt instruments. Management is responsible for monitoring the prevailing market-based interest rate and ensures that the mark-up rates charged on its borrowings are optimal and benchmarked against the rates charged by other creditor banks. On the other hand, the Group's investment policy is to maintain an adequate yield to match or reduce the net interest cost from its borrowings pending the deployment of funds to their intended use in the Group's operations and working capital management. However, the Group invests only in high-quality securities while maintaining the necessary diversification to avoid concentration risk. In managing interest rate risk, the Group aims to reduce the impact of short-term fluctuations on the Group's earnings. Over the longer term, however, permanent changes in interest rates would have an impact on profit or loss.	Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows from a financial instrument (cash flow interest rate risk) or its fair value (fair value interest rate risk) will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to changes in interest rates relates primarily to the Group's long-term borrowings and investment securities. Investments acquired or borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. On the other hand, investment securities acquired or borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk.
Foreign Currency Risk	Short-term currency forward contracts (deliverable and non-deliverable) and options are entered into to manage foreign currency risks arising from importations, revenue and expense transactions, and other foreign currency-denominated obligations. Currency swaps are entered into to manage foreign currency risks relating to long-term foreign currency-denominated borrowings.	The Group's functional currency is the Philippine peso, which is the denomination of the bulk of the Group's revenues. The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk results from significant movements in foreign exchange rates that adversely affect the foreign currency-denominated transactions of the

	The management of foreign currency risk is also supplemented by monitoring the sensitivity of the Group's financial instruments to various foreign currency exchange rate scenarios. Foreign exchange movements affect reported equity in the following ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • retained earnings arising from increases or decreases in unrealized and realized foreign exchange gains or losses; • translation reserves arising from increases or decreases in foreign exchange gains or losses recognized directly as part of other comprehensive income; and • hedging reserves arising from increases or decreases in foreign exchange gains or losses of the hedged item and the hedging instrument. 	Group. The Group's risk management objective with respect to foreign currency risk is to reduce or eliminate earnings volatility and any adverse impact on equity. The Group enters into foreign currency hedges using a combination of non-derivative and derivative instruments such as foreign currency forwards, options or swaps to manage its foreign currency risk exposure.
Commodity Price Risk	Commodity derivative transactions are entered into by the Group to reduce cost by optimizing purchasing synergies within the Group and managing inventory levels of common materials.	Commodity price risk is the risk that future cash flows from a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in commodity prices. The Group enters into various commodity derivatives to manage its price risks on strategic commodities. Commodity hedging allows stability in prices, thus offsetting the risk of volatile market fluctuations. Through hedging, prices of commodities are fixed at levels acceptable to the Group, thus protecting raw material cost and preserving margins. For hedging transactions, if prices go down, hedge positions may show marked-to-market losses; however, any loss in the marked-to-market position is offset by the resulting lower physical raw material cost.
Liquidity Risk	The Group constantly monitors and manages its liquidity position, liquidity gaps and surplus on a daily basis. A committed stand-by credit facility from several local banks is also available to ensure availability of funds when necessary. The Group also uses derivative instruments such as forwards and swaps to manage liquidity.	Liquidity risk pertains to the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Group's objectives to manage its liquidity risk are as follows: a) to ensure that adequate funding is available at all times; b) to meet commitments as they arise without incurring unnecessary costs; c) to be able to access funding when needed at the least possible cost; and d) to maintain an adequate time spread of refinancing maturities.

Credit Risk	The Group has regular internal control reviews to monitor the granting of credit and management of credit exposures.	Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Group if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Group's trade and other receivables and investment securities. The Group manages its credit risk mainly through the application of transaction limits and close risk monitoring. It is the Group's policy to enter into transactions with a wide diversity of creditworthy counterparties to mitigate any significant concentration of credit risk.

(c) Minority Shareholders

Indicate the principal risk of the exercise of controlling shareholders' voting power.

Risk to Minority Shareholders
Article 7 of the Amended Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation as of November 08, 2013 provides for the denial of pre-emptive rights of shareholders to any issuance of common shares and preferred shares.

(c) State the company's training and development programmes for its employees. Show the data.

The Corporation recognizes its responsibility to shape and develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes of its human resources in order to contribute to the professional development of its employees and maintain its competitive position.

The Company's training and education philosophy is defined in the following principles:

Business Contribution - Training is anchored on the needs of the business and the impact on the Company's bottom line. Education and training help optimize the productivity and performance of the employees of the Company and enable them to contribute to the profitability of the Company.

Alignment of Needs - The Company's framework creates an environment where the employees have the opportunity to chart their own progress and development so long as these are supportive of the Company's strategic directions.

Holistic Development - Education and training is holistic and comprehensive in content and approach. The Company develops its employees not just on technical or functional expertise but on work support skills and leadership/management. In terms of approach, the Company utilized traditional classroom, experiential and mentoring approaches to deliver training.

Collaborative Partnership and Involvement - Planning, design and delivery of education solutions are done in partnership with clients and with accredited service providers.

In support of the foregoing policies, the Company has an education benefit which provides assistance to employees who wishes to pursue further studies. The program covers free tuition and miscellaneous expenses as well as cost of major books. The Company also extends educational loans, interest free, to meet the educational requirements of the employees and their dependents.

The Company also has Management and Development Program (MDP) aimed at ensuring timely availability of the required number of employees at middle manager level and up with the necessary or required education, experience, ambition and personal characteristics to fulfill the short and long term needs of the organization. The MDP involves in depth assessment and the implementation of planned development activities to meet the skill gaps of the employees.

The MDP involves in depth assessment and the implementation of planned development activities to meet the skill gaps of the employees.

- (d) State the company's reward/compensation policy that accounts for the performance of the company beyond short-term financial measures

The Corporation is guided by the following principles in the design of the salaries and wages of its employees:

Internal Equity - The principle creates a hierarchy where positions are valued or equated based on comparable work, responsibility and output. Jobs with more complex content and greater accountability receive commensurably higher pay. The Corporation utilizes a job evaluation system to ensure the foregoing.

External Competitiveness - The Corporation's pay scale is competitive with those of comparable companies in the business community. The objective of this principle is to attract external candidates and promote employee retention.

Business Affordability - Salary structures while affected by the need to be externally competitive are still anchored on the Corporation's financial capability to pay in order to achieve business performance and continued operations. This principle reinforced the thinking that the Corporation's ability to improve salaries and wages is largely dependent on its bottom-line to which every employee has a personal contribution to make. The principle promotes a personal stake from each employee to improve the Corporation's business performance.

Performance-based - The Corporation believes that good performance must be appropriately rewarded. There is a tight link between the Corporation's Performance Management System and its rewards systems. This principle supports the value of teamwork since employees are measured not only in their individual performance but also in the performance of their team, encouraging them to have an active concern for those in the team.

Non-financial Rewards - The Corporation uses alternative forms of recognition to reward performance. The different business units are encouraged to develop programs such as citations, awards, performance feedback and mentoring to guide good performers.

- 3) What are the company's procedures for handling complaints by employees concerning illegal (including corruption) and unethical behaviour? Explain how employees are protected from retaliation.

The Corporation has an established whistle-blowing policy aimed at encouraging directors, officers, and employees to speak out and call the attention of Management to any suspected wrongdoing which is contrary to the principles of the Code of Ethics and violations of the Corporation's rules and regulations. The policy aims to protect the whistle blower from retribution or retaliation, and provides a disincentive to passively allowing the commission of wrongful conduct.

(d) Stockholders' Participation

1. State, if any, the measures adopted to promote stockholder participation in the Annual/Special Stockholders' Meeting, including the procedure on how stockholders and other parties interested may communicate directly with the Chairman of the Board, individual directors or board committees. Include in the discussion the steps the Board has taken to solicit and understand the views of the stockholders as well as procedures for putting forward proposals at stockholders' meetings.

Measures Adopted	Communication Procedure
Submission of questions in writing	The Corporate Secretary, at the onset of the Stockholders Meeting, states the ground rules for the conduct of the meeting. Stockholders are requested to submit their questions in writing. Question forms are available from the members of the staff in the venue. The form requires the stockholders asking questions to identify themselves. Priority is given to written questions submitted in advance.

Only stockholders or their proxies shall be allowed to participate in the open forum.	Any stockholder who wishes to ask questions is requested to wait to be acknowledged by the Chairman before speaking. Once acknowledged, the stockholder shall identify himself, or if he is a proxy, he will also identify the party he is representing.
Questions not entertained due to time constraints shall be referred to the Office of the Corporate Secretary.	The Corporate Secretary responds in writing to questions after the meeting, or takes note of suggestions or comments if any.

2. State the company policy of asking shareholders to actively participate in corporate decisions regarding:
 - a. Amendments to the company's constitution
 - b. Authorization of additional shares
 - c. Transfer of all or substantially all assets, which in effect results in the sale of the company

For the above-cited corporate decisions, the Corporation affords the shareholders the opportunity to participate in such corporate decisions through the distribution of the notice of meeting of shareholders in the form of a definitive information statement which contains in detail the explanation for the proposed shareholder action, including but not limited to amendments to the Corporation's articles and By-laws, the issuance of shares or the transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation. By practice, the definitive information statement is distributed at least twenty-one (21) business days prior to the date of the meeting to give the stockholders ample time to communicate with the Corporation on matters relating to such proposed actions.

3. Does the company observe a minimum of 21 business days for giving out of notices to the AGM where items to be resolved by shareholders are taken up?

No, the Corporation complies with the pertinent provisions of the Securities Regulation. Code.

- a. Date of sending out notices: June 10, 2016
 - b. Date of the Annual/Special Stockholders' Meeting: July 14, 2016
4. State, if any, questions and answers during the Annual/Special Stockholders' Meeting.

Excerpts from the Minutes of the Annual Stockholders' Meeting of the Corporation on July 09, 2014:

"A stockholder, who is also a stockholder of San Miguel Corporation ("SMC"), requested clarification on the reason why SMC shareholders received Company shares, which they did not ask for, and as a result of such distribution, their SMC cash dividends were being deducted to pay-off the taxes accrued due to such distribution of the Company shares. The President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Ramon S. Ang, explained that the Company shares received by qualified SMC shareholders is a result of the property dividend declaration by SMC, whereby qualified SMC shareholders received one (1) Company share for every ten (10) SMC shares held. The Company shares distributed by reason of said property dividend declaration was priced at Php168.00 per share. The amount of the withholding tax due from the qualified SMC stockholders arising from the receipt of said property dividend is a matter of compliance with existing taxation laws. Mr. Ang likewise explained to the stockholders that if they do not wish to retain their Company shares, they can sell said shares at a profit, provided that the taxes due thereon should be paid and settled accordingly.

A stockholder addressed an inquiry to the Chief Finance Officer, Ms. Navarra, and asked why Schedule B (Amounts Receivable From (Payable to) Directors, Officers, Employees, Related Parties and Principal Stockholders) of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company states "not applicable." Ms. Navarra explained that "not applicable" relates to amounts receivable (payable to) directors, officers and employees. For those amounts receivable from (payable to) related parties which are eliminated during the consolidation of financial statements, the same are disclosed in Schedule C. On the other hand, for those accounts which are not eliminated by reason of consolidation, the same are disclosed under Note 32 of the Notes to the Financial Statements (Related Party Disclosure).

As a follow-up question, the same stockholder noted that the Company has several loans, and inquired whether the Company is engaged in the illegal activity of “kiting.” The treasurer, Ms. Aurora T. Calderon, responded that neither the Company nor SMC is engaged in, and will not engage in, “kiting” activities.

A stockholder asked for the amount of the carrying cost of SMC shares in the books of the Company and whether the Company will conduct a follow up offering. Mr. Ang reported that the carrying cost of SMC shares in the books of the Company is approximately Php96.67. With respect to the conduct of a follow up offering, Mr. Ang responded that, at present, the Company does not intend to issue new shares.

Another stockholder inquired what potential businesses the Company will invest on aside from SMC and Clariden Holdings, Inc. Mr. Ang responded that, presently, there are none but if an opportunity arises in the future, Management shall duly inform the public through adequate disclosures.”
