Optional: Principle 14
1. Company discloses its policies and practices that address customers' welfare
2. Company discloses its policies and practices that address supplier/contractor selection procedures
Principle 15: A mechanism for employee participation should be developed to create a symbiotic environment, realize the company's goals and participate in its corporate governance processes.
Recommendation 15.1
1. Board establishes policies, programs and procedures that encourage employees to actively participate in the realization of the company's goals and in its governance.	COMPLIANT	The Company has existing policies and programs for employees covering, among others, the following: (a) health, safety and welfare; (b) training and development; and (c) reward/compensation for employees, to encourage employees to perform better and motivate them to take a more dynamic role in the Company. http://www.topfrontier.com.ph/images/TF%20Policy%20on%20Health,%20Safety%20&%20Welfare,%20and%20Training%20(excerpts%20from%20Employee%20Manual)%20(10%20Nov%202014).pdf
Supplement to Recommendation 15.1
1. Company has a reward/compensation policy that accounts for the performance	COMPLIANT	The Company is guided by the following principles in the design of the salaries and wages of its employees:

of the company beyond short-term financial measures.		Internal Equity The principle creates a hierarchy where positions are valued or equated based on comparable work, responsibility and output. Jobs with more complex content and greater accountability receive commensurably higher pay. The Company utilizes a job evaluation system to ensure the foregoing. External Competitiveness The Company's pay scale is competitive with those of comparable companies in the business community. The objective of this principle is to attract external candidates and promote employee retention. Business Affordability Salary structures while affected by the need to be externally competitive are still anchored on the Company's financial capability to pay in order to achieve business performance and continued operations. This principle reinforced the thinking that the Company's ability to improve salaries and wages is largely dependent on its bottom-line to which every employee has a personal contribution to make. The principle promotes a personal stake from each employee to
